Dear Friend,

An engaging summer program or first job can be life-changing for a young person. Yet, it can sometimes feel overwhelming to identify what is available and to find the right fit.

That is why on Monday, March 16th, I will be hosting my seventh annual Youth Opportunities Fair to connect constituents with a wide variety of enrichment programs, internships, and volunteer and job opportunities for young people ages 5 to 21. The event will be held at the Indianapolis Central Library (40 E St Clair St, Indianapolis, IN 46204) from Noon to 7pm.

This is one of my favorite events of the year. Our community is fortunate to have so many great resources that enrich our kids' lives, and my Youth Opportunities Fair puts many of them under one roof.

Visit with exhibitors at your own pace and find the right fit for you. For working-age youth, professional volunteers will also offer helpful tips for success, such as how to impress employers, create or improve a resume, and more.

The event is free. Youth, parents and caretakers are invited to attend. Schools or community organizations hoping to bring groups are encouraged to contact my office to make the most of your experience.
