CONGRESSIONAL INTERNSHIP

Job Description

If you are a student or recent graduate interested in how Congress works and how federal policy impacts states and localities, Congressman André Carson is seeking enthusiastic individuals to fill internships available in his Washington, DC and Indianapolis offices. Interns will have a chance to learn about the inner workings of the United States Congress through hands-on experiences.

Job Duties

Interns will assist the DC and Indianapolis offices by supporting Congressman Carson's legislative and district teams. Interns will have the opportunity to learn about legislation, constituent services, write research and memos, and attend community and legislative events.

Qualifications

- Student or recent graduate
- Ability to work a minimum of 20 hours per week
- Have excellent written, verbal communication, and problem-solving skills
- Adaptable, self-starting leader, professional acumen
- Have an interest in public service
